

Salvadoran Enterprises for Women [SEW]
presents the

2012 ROMERO CUP

¡Bowling for El Salvador - Duckpin Tournament!

When: Sunday, February 19, 2012 from 6 pm to 9 pm (registration starts at 5:30 pm)

Where: Hillendale Bowling Center, 1045 Taylor Ave., Towson, MD 21239

Why: SEW's mission is to create a viable economy in rural El Salvador by training and educating women in El Salvador, and by developing small community industries through micro-grants. Successful SEW businesses include a bakery, two chicken farms, a sewing cooperative, a mobile kitchen, a restaurant and an indigo-dyed clothing business. Proceeds from the Romero Cup tournament, which is named in honor of Bishop Oscar Romero, go directly to support SEW for their ongoing projects in El Salvador. SEW is a faith-based public charity initiated by the School Sisters of Notre Dame. *SEW is an IRS 501(c)(3) qualified charity and $27 of the $45 entry fee is tax deductible. Please visit www.sewinc.org or contact Anne Marie Gardiner, SSND, annemarie@sewinc.org, for more information.

Fabulous Prizes Awarded For: Highest Game Score, Highest Set Score, Lowest Game Score, Highest Pledge Count, and Highest Team Score

Entry Fee/Donation*: $45 per bowler. Included are the following: three fun games of duckpin bowling, shoe rentals, soda, pizza, trophies, and fabulous prizes! Please send checks payable to "SEW, Inc.", c/o Romero Cup Registrar, Kevin Capinpin, 818 Park Ave. Apt. 5, Baltimore, MD 21201.

Reservations Required: To join the 2012 Romero Cup tournament, please send your contact information to Registrar Kevin Capinpin: capinpin@usa.net or mail him this completed form along with your entry fee. If you've arranged a 4 person team, please include team members' names & email addresses.
